A REPUBLICAN LANDSLIDE.

very Northern State Went Republican for the National Ticket.

By the largest popular vote and by the largest electoral vote ever given to a president, Roosevelt has been elected to the presidency. His popular plurality will be about 1,500,000. His electoral plurality will be about 210. New York went republican by an enormous plurality about 125,000. Indiana by about 60,000, while Pennsylvania added a hundred thousand to its greatest previous plurality. There does not seem to have been so much republican gain as democratic loss. A number of northern states went democratic for their state tickets, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Colorado, Nebraska and possibly Rhode Island.

In Missouri, the republicans won seven or eight congressmen and the legislature will doubtless be republican on the joint ballot. Cowherd, Benton, Lamar, Wilson and Hamlin were defeated. Folk was elected by a plurality of about 40,000 but the rest of the state ticket was lost with the possible exception of Rubey and Oglesby.

Nearly every county in the state reports a falling off in the total vote cast, but the republican vote was about normal. This shows that it was the democrats who stayed at home.

Ye Deestreet Skewl.

A crowded house greeted the performance of "Ye Deestreet School" at the Grand Opera House, Friday night Nov. 4th, and its frequent and generous applause showed that it was thoroughly pleased. Everyone who took part deserves much credit and it is almost impossible to give individual praise to the performers. The costumes were extremely ridiculous and were not the least factor in making the show a success. Miss Wilcox deserves much praise for the creditable manner in which the performance was given, under her direction.

Scene 1 represented a committee meeting and examination of applicants for the school. Leroy Farmer, Dr. W. R. Eckle and Rev. R. B. Briney as committeemen and parliamentarians were unsurpassed.

The second scene was the opening day of school. The scholars were first represented as going to school, then the scene changed and the interior of the room was given. There were large scholars and small scholars, the giggling girl, the crying baby, the four-year-old, the teacher's pet, etc. Ezekiah Jones, the teacher's pet, Samantha Piper, the giggling girl, and Billy Crowfoot the sleepy boy, were favorites with the audience and gained frequent applause.

The third scene was the last day of school with the customary recitations of the scholars. You could almost imagine yourself witnessing the Friday afternoon entertainment of real pupils. Finally Dr. Perkins, chairman of the school committee, made an inspiring address under difficulties, as he was much annoyed by mischievous boys. The performance was closed by the school singing America in various keys.

Besides the regular program three pleasing specialties were introduced. Piano solo by Miss Arline Burden, readings by Miss Susan Yates and vocal solos by Mrs. Irvin Tevis.

Rev. Northcutt to Come.

Rev. H. A. Northcutt, one of the truly great Evangelists of the Christian church, will begin a meeting in this city at the Christian church Sunday morning. Rev. Briney has been in correspondence with Rev. Northcutt for over a year regarding their meeting and it is with great pleasure that he announces to the general public the exact date. Rev. Northcutt will bring with him a consecrated and talented singing Evangelist who will have charge of the music during the meeting. The church has made elaborate preparations for this meeting, and the people of Lexington and of the county are cordially invited to attend. Remember the meeting begins next Sunday.
